L.E.A.D. EXHIBIT

A TRIBUTE TO AFRICAN AMERICAN LEADERSHIP AT THE FLORIDA STATE FAIR

Celebrate African American history and individuals in the areas of creativity, productivity, leadership, innovation and overall strength as "Leaders who Empower, Advocate and Dream" with the L.E.A.D. exhibit at the Florida State Fair. In celebration of Black and American History, within this display is a special curated exhibit by Tampa author and historian Ersula K. Odom captures the evolution of education in Hillsborough County including buildings, leaders, and communities embracing the diversity of its people. Displays will highlight a distinct subject area, activity, or program in grades PK-20, with a student-centric focus and will be available for view From February 6-17, 2020.
